patient care, billing, scheduling, clinical decision-making, and professional liability related to services provided by Tenant.

8.3 Professional Standards: Tenant shall maintain all services in accordance with applicable professional standards, federal and state healthcare regulations, and ethical guidelines governing psychiatric nursing practice.

8.4 Prohibited Uses: Tenant shall not use the Premises for any unlawful purpose or in any manner that would void Landlord's insurance coverage or violate building codes or zoning regulations.

9. TENANT RESPONSIBILITIES

9.1 Licensing and Credentials: Tenant shall maintain, at all times during the term of this Agreement:

- Current, active Kentucky APRN license • Valid DEA registration • Current NPI number • Any other licenses or certifications required to practice psychiatric nursing

Tenant shall provide Landlord with copies of current licenses and registrations annually and shall immediately notify Landlord of any suspension, revocation, or restriction of any license or credential.

9.2 Professional Liability Insurance: Tenant shall maintain professional liability (malpractice) insurance with minimum coverage of $1,000,000 per occurrence. Tenant shall provide Landlord with a current certificate of insurance annually and upon any renewal or change in coverage.

9.3 Independent Billing and Operations: Tenant shall independently manage all aspects of patient billing, insurance credentialing, collections, scheduling, and patient records. Landlord has no responsibility or involvement in Tenant's billing, collections, or revenue.

9.4 Maintenance of Premises: Tenant shall maintain the Premises in good, clean condition and shall be responsible for any damage to the Premises beyond normal wear and tear caused by Tenant, Tenant's employees, or Tenant's patients.

9.5 Compliance with Laws: Tenant shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances applicable to Tenant's practice, including but not limited to HIPAA, DEA regulations, Kentucky Board of Nursing regulations, and anti-kickback laws.

9.6 Notification of Issues: Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any disciplinary action, malpractice claim, license suspension or restriction, DEA investigation, or other professional issue that could affect Tenant's ability to practice or use the Premises.

10. LANDLORD RESPONSIBILITIES

10.1 Building Maintenance: Landlord shall maintain the building structure, common areas, HVAC systems, plumbing, and electrical systems in good working condition.

10.2 Access to Premises: Landlord shall provide Tenant with reasonable access to the Premises during normal business hours. Tenant shall have key/access card access to the building and leased offices.

10.3 Quiet Enjoyment: Landlord shall ensure Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Premises and shall not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's practice operations.

10.4 Common Area Services: Landlord shall maintain common areas, provide receptionist services for greeting clients, and ensure the building presents a professional appearance suitable for healthcare services.

- Landlord's negligent maintenance of the building or common areas
- Landlord's breach of this Agreement
- Defects in the building structure or systems

13.4 No Joint Liability: Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create joint and several liability between the parties. Each party's liability is limited to their own acts and omissions.

14. INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

14.1 Professional Liability Insurance: Tenant shall maintain professional liability (malpractice) insurance with minimum coverage of $1,000,000 per occurrence throughout the term of this Agreement.

14.2 Proof of Insurance: Tenant shall provide Landlord with a current certificate of insurance evidencing required coverage annually and upon any renewal or change in coverage.

14.3 Failure to Maintain Insurance: Failure to maintain required insurance coverage shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and grounds for immediate termination.

15. ALTERATIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS

15.1 Landlord Approval Required: Tenant shall not make any alterations, improvements, or modifications to the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent.

15.2 Restoration: Upon termination of this Agreement, Tenant shall, at Landlord's option, either restore the Premises to their original condition or leave approved improvements in place.

15.3 Tenant's Property: Tenant may install furniture, equipment, and professional supplies necessary for Tenant's practice. All such property remains Tenant's property and shall be removed upon lease termination, with any damage repaired.

16. DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

16.1 Events of Default: The following shall constitute events of default under this Agreement:

- Failure to pay rent within ten (10) days of due date
- Failure to maintain required insurance coverage
- Loss, suspension, or restriction of professional license or DEA registration
- Material breach of any other term of this Agreement
- Use of Premises for unlawful purposes

16.2 Cure Period: Upon default, the non-defaulting party shall provide written notice to the defaulting party. The defaulting party shall have fifteen (15) days to cure any default, except for non-payment of rent, which shall have a ten (10) day cure period.

16.3 Termination for Default: If the default is not cured within the cure period, the non-defaulting party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice.

16.4 Remedies: Upon termination for default, the non-defaulting party shall be entitled to all remedies available at law or in equity, including recovery of damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees.

17. MARKETING AND BRANDING

17.1 Building Signage: The building and common areas are branded as "G&A Counseling." Tenant may have professional nameplate signage on their office doors subject to Landlord's approval of design and placement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.
